Normal School.

The Hillsboro Normal School will open June 8 and all indications are that it will be very successful.

Arrangements have been made so that pupils can secure lodging at a very reasonable price. With two in a room the price will be from 75c to $1 a week for each pupil. Good board can be secured here at as reasonable a price as anywhere.

The course of study has been authorized by the state superintendent of public instruction and the same credit will be given as at the State Normal at Oxford.

Teachers should bear in mind that after this year they can not teach unless they have six weeks of Normal training. If you want to teach you must attend Normal school somewhere and the opportunities offered here should appeal to all teachers of Highland county and adjoining counties.
